

The Bioethics Program

Clarkson University (CRC)
Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai

80 Nott Terrace, Schenectady, NY 12308

518-631-9860

bioethics@clarkson.edu

Sample Program (3 year option) Research ethics Specialization

A Student in the Dual Degree MS, JD program

- Year 1: Normal program for a law student—31 required credits
Summer Year 1: BIE 500 Proseminar in Bioethics –on-site at Clarkson CRC (one week in Summer).
- Year 2: Normal Program for a law student in both Fall and Spring semesters
(less one course per term to be taken in Summer).
All students will do the Health Law Concentration and the Bioethics Seminar at ALS,
This will satisfy BIE 530: Bioethics and the Law, and Elective in the MS in Bioethics.
- Fall Trimester (Sept-Nov) BIE 555: Research Ethics I
- Winter Trimester (Jan-Mar): BIE 580: Research Ethics II
- Spring Trimester (March –June) BIE 610R: On-Line Practicum (8 weeks)
BIE 620R: Onsite Practicum (1 week)
BIE 650: Capstone Part 1 (1 week)
- Summer Year 2: 2 law courses
- Year 3 Normal Program for a law student in both Fall and Spring semesters. (less 12 credits)
(And they will not be doing the traditional Law school upper class writing requirement)
- Fall Trimester: (Sept-Nov): BIE 510: Biomedical Ethics
BIE 630: Masters Project I
- Winter Trimester: Jan-March) BIE 520: Health Care Policy
BIE 640: Masters Project II
- Spring: Trimester: (March-June) BIE 650: Capstone Part 2 (Present project)(can be in person or via Skype)
- May: ALS Graduation
June: Clarkson Graduation